

Mr. Wrestling...

AL BEVILACQUA

Al, (in the center of course), doing the work he loves best.

Over Four Decades of Service to the Sport of Wrestling.....

Al Bevilacqua has been “Mr. Wrestling” on Long Island for many years, Mention anything about wrestling pertaining to Long Island and, sooner or later, Als’ name will surely come up. He was a wrestler at Massapequa High School and later coached the team from 1961 to 1977, leading the “Chiefs” into Section Eight prominence and producing many Nassau County Champions. He was head wrestling coach at Hofstra University from 1977 thru 1979 and, for many International teams. He was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 1996.
